Endorsements

"We have been working with Glenn and the Table Group for nearly two years, and though we have had access to some of the best consultants and leadership advisors, few have compared in impact to Glenn. Glenn really helped us turn our executive group into an executive team - with an emphasis on the word team. By focusing on creating a "first team," and building trust, commitment, and eventually accountability, our team performance and eventually company performance significantly improved. We continue to work with Glenn, and I imagine we will for a long time to come. It is after all a competitive advantage."

—Brian Chesky, CEO and Co-founder, Airbnb

"We brought on Glenn and The Table Group to help drive team cohesion, clarity, and alignment for our executive team and he had an amazing impact on our organization. Whether your team is already epic or needs some work, I highly recommend working with him (unless you compete with me)."

—Aaron Levie, CEO, Box
