

Andrew Moore

Principal Consultant, The Table Group

Director, Liam Enterprises Pty Ltd

As a Principal Consultant, Andrew brings over 15 years of leadership and executive experience to his partnership with The Table Group. Whether he's working with a CEO and his or her leadership team at a two-day offsite, addressing senior executives at a conference or organisational health workshop, or meeting with managers and clients for individual coaching, Andrew brings his boundless energy, innovation and excitement for organisational health to all he does.

Currently, Andrew works regularly with CEOs and executive teams in quickly and effectively applying the concepts of organisational health. His clients span a broad spectrum of organisations in fields including emergency services, construction, market research, travel, telecommunications, education, and insurance.

In addition to his work with consulting clients, Andrew is a passionate writer and has published work on culture change management, organisational behavior and team decision making.

Prior to beginning his consulting career in 2011, and partnering with the Table Group in 2012, Andrew worked as CEO for Harcourts real estate in Western Australia. Before that, he worked in various executive roles in the Brisbane real estate industry.

Andrew holds a Doctorate in Cultural Change Management and post graduate degrees in Economics and Strategic Organisational Development, and lives with his wife and family in Brisbane, Queensland.
