Endorsements

"Our organization has been completely transformed by this work. Before working with Waldemar, we lacked the structure necessary for the tough conversations. This work has led us to the crucial answers necessary to prepare us for the challenges ahead."

—Keith Miller, CEO, Montgomery County Revenue Authority

"It would be hard to overestimate the impact that The Table Group has had on our team and organization. The primary reason for that is if we had not engaged Waldemar our team would likely not exist as it does today (meaning key people would have left and the business would have taken a big step backwards). Waldemar stepped into a situation where there was years' worth of baggage that needed to be cleared before the real work could even begin. Once that was navigated, the leadership team was able to engage in the process of learning more about each other and developing the business clarity that we needed to move forward."

—Buddy Webb, CEO, Lake Street Advisors
